Graft Ring Bribery Scandal

SAN FRANCISCO SHAKEN OVER EXPOSURES

The unmasking of former Supreme Justice F. W. Henshaw for his acceptance of a $410,000 bribe in the famous Fair case is regarded in San Francisco as one of the outstanding sensations in J. B. Densmore's expose of the Mooney case. It came as a thunderclap in those circles, clubdom and the judiciary, where Henshaw has been held in high regard because of his prominence throughout the state. The crooked machinations of District Attorney Charles M. Fickert; the fraudulent activities of the McDonough ring; Eddie Bryant's disposition to bribe a jury—criminal as they might appear, could hardly challenge interest in the same way as does the Henshaw matter.

The San Francisco Labor Council after a debate in which charges of bad faith were exchanged, refused to support the nation-wide general strike for Thomas J. Mooney. It also refused to risk submission of the matter to the affiliated unions for a referendum strike vote.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Threats of a general machinists' strike here, which would involve directly about 30,000 men, as a protest against the execution in California of Thomas J. Mooney, were voiced at a meeting of members of the International Association of Machinists in Brooklyn last night. In addition to the men directly affected, such a strike would throw out of work thousands of others.

HUGE DYE WORKS WILL REPLACE INDUSTRIAL PLANT

The Smith Construction Company received orders from the government yesterday to cease work on the huge industrial plant which was in process of erection adjoining the Giant Company at Giant. Practically all men were discharged. A few were kept as guards to see that no damage will be done on the work already completed.

While the work stopped on this particular project, it is rumored by persons on the inside that the Giant Company is arranging to take over the land and work as completed, and carry it through, but turning the plant into a huge dye works.

As soon as arrangements can be completed some 12,000 men will be employed to rush the project through. This rumor is upheld by the fact that over 12 carloads of lumber and as many other of other supplies were unloaded at the ground. The fact that the Giant Company has already fitted out part of its plant and is manufacturing dyes on a large scale seems to verify the rumor. It is quite logical too to conjecture that the dyes which have been perfected by our chemists since the German dyes were out of the market, would be manufactured to supply the big demand, for it will be a long time before the world will consent to use anything of German manufacture.

MONEY TALKS
In the various war bond drives, Seattle subscribed $69,596,500; Los Angeles $129,846,200; San Francisco, $290,414,200.

MANY INQUESTS NEXT WEEK
Coroner Curry will at last find time from the rush of business to hold several long delayed inquests and will hold them the coming week.

Fears Death By Phantom Murderer

Having hallucinations and images that some one was chasing him and was trying to kill him, H. J. Kanupsee was taken in custody by the police department and removed from the Colonial hotel to the city jail Friday evening. Then last night he was sent to Martinez on an insanity charge and was lodged in the county hospital. He will be examined next week.

R. C. LINEN SHOWER BY MOBILIZED WOMEN

Richmond's quota in the Red Cross linen shower for the benefit of France which will take place November 25th to 30th under the direction of the Mobilized Women, Mrs. J. C. Owens, colonel, is as follows:

358 bath towels, 19x35 inches; 714 hand towels, 18x20 inches; 477 handkerchiefs, 18x12 inches; 36 napkins, 14x14 inches; 215 sheets 64x102 inches.

Dimensions are approximate. Bleached or unbleached sheets are satisfactory. All articles should be in first class condition and practically new. Every family is asked to contribute at least one article. Articles may be left at any Red Cross work room.

RICHMOND CLUB WILL MEET TOMMOROW

The Richmond Club will hold its first post epidemic meeting at the club house tomorrow afternoon. The meeting was to have been held a week ago, but the president, Mrs. J. B. Offhorn fell ill, so it was necessary to postpone it until tomorrow.

The club has immense amount of business to transact and for that reason the president would like to have all the members present. The monthly payments for the adopted Belgian baby are due and should be brought in by the members so that the amount may be forwarded without delay.

Many plans for the holidays and other matters will also be discussed.

TELEGRAPHIC SUMMARY

U. S. CASUALTIES ARE GIVEN AT 30,154 KILLED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Total casualties of the American expeditionary forces up to the signing of the armistice were announced today by General March as follows:

Killed and died of wounds, 36,154; died of disease, 14,811; died from other causes, 2204; wounded, 179,425; prisoners, 2163; missing, 1140.

The American forces in France, General March said, had taken 44,000 German prisoners in round numbers and 1400 guns. He added that the casualties among the American forces in northern Russia were not severe, contrary to reports, and that encouraging accounts of the situation of the forces there had been received.

AMERICANS REACH THE RHINE WITH THE AMERICANS ADVANCING TOWARD THE RHINE.
Nov. 23.—The Americans are facing the frontier of Prussia across the Moselle. They halted today on the west bank of the river, where they will remain for an indefinite period.

700,000 MEN WILL LEAVE FOR HOME

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—About thirty American divisions—about 1,400,000 men—many constitute the American portion of the associated army of occupation in the West, if the present plans carry.

General Pershing is understood today to have cabled the recommendation that about thirty divisions remain abroad for the present. This would free about 700,000 men for return to the United States.

BOLSHEVIKS READY TO LEAVE COPENHAGEN, Nov. 23.

The Soviet authorities of Russia have ordered that a cruiser be ready at the shortest notice to sail from the mouth of the Neva River in the Gulf of Finland and it is announced that in case of danger fourteen members of the government will embark for a neutral port, according to Petrograd advices.

BRITISH RED CROSS IN BERLIN

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 23.—British Red Cross officials have arrived in Berlin.

GRAND JURY WILL START INVESTIGATION

SAN FRANCISCO, November 23.—Assurance that the county grand jury will without delay begin an investigation of the charges of graft and corruption revealed in the amazing report of John B. Densmore on his inquiry into the Tom Mooney case at the direction of the Department of Labor, was expressed today by President Judge E. F. Morgan.

From three other quarters action was expected today toward an official investigation of the charges. The public demand for speedy action was accentuated by the denials issued by many of those involved in Densmore's revelations.

GOVERNOR SILENT ON TOM MOONEY CASE

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 23.—Governor W. D. Stephens in a statement today denied he had "indicated to anyone the course I would take in the Mooney case."

The governor issued this brief statement: "There is absolutely no foundation for the published statement that I had indicated the course I would take in the Mooney case."

LABOR MEN WILL CALL ON GOV. STEPHENS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—A committee of 10 labor leaders, named by Daniel P. Haggerty, president of the California State Federation of Labor will call on Governor Stephens and urge executive clemency for Thos. J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings.

This action was decided on by the San Francisco Labor Council last night when it met to consider the advisability of referring to its affiliated unions a request that the members vote for a general strike of protest on the Mooney and Billings cases.

BELGIUM GETS NEW LOAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The treasury today extended another credit to Belgium of $5,600,000, making total loans to Belgium $98,120,000 and a total to all Allies of $3,184,576,666.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

Whereas, The President of the United States and the Governor of our State of California, having by proclamation designated Thursday, November 28, as a day to be set apart as a day of Thanksgiving, and creating national and state holiday of the same, I deem it proper and advisable to do the same locally, for the City of Richmond.

Therefore, By virtue of my office as Mayor, of the City of Richmond, I hereby proclaim Thursday, November 28, as a day of Thanksgiving for all our people, and a holiday, and advise that it be observed in the spirit intended.

We of Richmond have much to be thankful for this year. We are thankful that the awful slaughter of war is over. We are thankful that the recent epidemic of illness is likewise over. And we are thankful for the bright outlook ahead for our city, in the way of active building up, good business generally for all, and an unprecedented prosperity to which all signs now point unerringly.

Let us, then, give thanks unto, Almighty God, for the immediate future, by the quitting of all business on that day and the observance of the rites and customs usual upon that occasion.

Given under my hand and seal this 23rd day of November, 1918.

W. L. LANE,

Mayor of the City of Richmond

MANY HOMES ARE SOLD

The realty business in picking up fast as shown by the big business done by Conn Brothers last week. Their sales included six houses and lots, ranging from $2,000 to $3,500 in price. They are also closing up several more big deals.

STEPPATHER SHATTERS YOUNG GIRLS' ROMANCE

The sweet romance of Miss Violet Eaton, a sixteen-year-old Miss was cruelly cut to an abrupt end by the interference of her stepfather.

The girl and her soldier lover, Corporal Charles Mueller of Jackson, Oregon were married by Judge McCausland last night, after having climbed through the window of her room and sliding down the drain water pipe of her home in San Francisco. Later they met in Golden Gate park. From there they progressed by slow stages to Oakland, thence to Martinez, where the license was secured.

They were starting on their honeymoon when the stern hand of law brought it to a halt at the Sixteenth Street Station in Oakland. The police lieutenant tried to intercede but to no avail, and Michael Regan took his heartbroken stepdaughter home.

Movement of the immense supply of grain stored in Australian warehouses during the past two seasons on account of lack of cargo carriers has begun.

Figures compiled by the Marine Department of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce show 36,000 long tons of wheat now on the high seas bound for the port of San Francisco. This great tonnage is being carried almost exclusively in sailing vessels. The first of the wheat fleet is due here any time.

ABOUT POLICE

As a police shakeup is in progress in Richmond, owing to several unusual occurrences lately, a short dissertation on policemen in general is suggested.

In the first place, there is very little in the job and it is a thankless one at that, so we must not expect men like President Wilson or General Pershing to occupy such positions. The average policeman is a big, burly, good-natured husky, and almost always amenable to argument—when the argument is backed up by a $5 bill.

Now, y'understand, we are not talking of Richmond policemen, because we reformed in coming to this Coast and so don't know anything about California police. But we do know a whole lot about them in other places, although never arrested in our life—owing to that always handy old $5 bill.

We have been in about all the big cities of America dozens of times and under all sorts of conditions, day and night, in all sections of those cities, rich and poor, sober and otherwise, and had occasion to see many things and many policemen, under all kinds of circumstances, and we never saw one yet we couldn't get along fine with—with the "V."

We remember one time in Kansas City, late at night. We had been sailing around town like a ship at sea, and still like the ship, encountering many rolling billows that would persist in rolling. We were looking for our hotel and knew it was around there somewhere, but the skyscrapers were tangoing and foxtrotting and that confused us, as it were, and in fact as it was. We leaned up against one of them to keep it from falling down, and then a policeman stopped to remark:

"You look tired tonight."

"Yes, it has been a hot day and it's a tired night."

"Well, I guess you better come along with me."

Now, he knew better than that, because we had on a silk plug hat, Prince Albert coat, gold-handled cane and diamond front-light.

People ragged that way never do "go along," unless they have done worse than getting "tired." So we smiled cheerfully and remarked: "Where'd-y'e-git-that-noise? Here's a five—you show me where that dingbusted Baltimore Hotel is hiding out." So he showed the way—and it was only a block away all the time.

Another instance we recall was in Chicago, on Wabash Avenue. It was about midnight and a policeman came along, pulling a young woman by the arm. She was sobbing as if her heart would break, and being tender-hearted, we stopped the officer and asked him what the trouble was, whereupon the following confab resulted:

"What's it to you?"

"Ah, nothing, only I'm a newspaper man and might get a news item."

"Well, I pulled her for street walking and she's only a kid and says it's her first offense, so I thought a lesson might be good for her."

"Forget it."

"You butt in and I'll take you along."

"Take this along instead. (good night $5 bill). Probably she's had lesson enough and may brace up and do better."

Looking back from half a block away we saw the girl skidding away in shadows alone, and the officer sniggering along as innocent as the cat that ate the canary.

It takes all kinds of people to make a world, and so different kinds get on police forces—some good and others solid ivory from the neck up.

Many a boche who was thinking of luncheon in Paris now confines his aspirations to any kind of a quick handout in his home town.

HE STOLE IT ALL

A dispatch from Amsterdam says:

Two hundred bags of gold and silver German coins, each weighing a hundred pounds, have arrived in Holland for the former kaiser; it was reported here today. The bags were brought across the frontier in sealed wagons. They are believed to have been deposited in a small bank in Southern Holland.

Every dollar of it should be confiscated.

MAKE IT INDEFINITE

Sooner or later, unless the plan for the League of Nations is given up, the allies will have to recognize and trust some German government.—S. F. Call.

Is that so? Well, then, make it later instead of sooner.

He thought he'd wed an angel
And the shock was rough and rude
When he discovered what it meant
To eat that angel's food.

Paradoxical as it may seem, the only way for a town to go "over the top" in making a bond quota is to dig.

The kaiser has not only fought himself out of a job, but it looks very much to us as if he will soon be out of breath.

In Saint Louis they are threatening to cut pies into eighths. Why not? That will be only 70 cents profit on something costing about a dime.

So long as the German people stand for that "All Highest" rot, they needn't come round us with any of their pretensions of intelligence. They are simply a commissary of squirrels.

As we understand it, that one-time indemnity of $80,000,000,000 the kaiser was going to demand of the United States can now be settled promptly if we are willing to pay him 80 cents cash.

Some men are born great, some acquire fame, and every year a bunch scrounge into the fat volume of "Who's Who". We observe that the latest edition of that palpably incomplete work scornfully omits our name as usual.

"There is a vacant chair in every home of our land," declares a Berlin Socialist. That's a deliberate falsehood. There has been not one fatality in the kaiser's family; on the contrary about seven grandchildren have been born in the households of his unscratched, unpunctured and unbattledeafened sons since the war began.

"After the war will husbands be monogamous? Will our line hold against the Hun and the Harem?" asks Helen Ring Robinson. Listen, Helen. So long as bacon sells for 65 cents a pound, butter for 70 cents and eggs for 58 cents a dozen, we believe that husbands will remain monogamous and bachelors agamous.

"It is quite possible," says Frederic Villers, world famous dean of war correspondents, in the Forum, "that she (the United States) may have to maintain a standing army in Europe after peace is declared—perhaps for fifteen or twenty years! She kept her army five years in the Philippines. There will also be an army at home. Then there is Russia to consider. You are sending troops over there now. The war and its consequences will be costly for some years to come."

SOME BOY

Mrs. B. H. Stoddard has just received an interesting letter from her boy, who is now stationed on special duty somewhere in European waters. Enclosed in the letter was a $100 Liberty Bond as a gift to his mother. In answer to a question his mother had asked, he said that some fellows would marry anywhere, even in the Congo Free State, but most all the boys will return to the good U. S. A. for their brides.

TAKES TO BE REDUCED

BY SENATE SOON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—The war revenue bill was revised downward by the Senate Finance Committee today almost to the six billion dollar estimate proposed for 1919. Reduction of the special taxes was virtually completed. Among the miscellaneous items to be stricken from the bill today were the proposed taxes of two cents each on bank checks, estimated to raise $50,000,000 or more, and the tax of 1 per cent on gross sales of mail order houses with sales in excess of $100,000 annually, estimated to raise $5,000,000.

PRISONERS CRUCIFIED IN GERMAN CAMPS

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Hundreds of British prisoners are arriving in Paris and Holland. Paris dispatches divide the prisoners into two classes those taken before and after the March offensive, the former receiving parcels of food from England, and the latter nearly starving.

There are many repetitions of stories of cruelty. For instance in Camp Giessen, if prisoners did any wrong, they were crucified. Three died and several were taken down in a fainting condition when this form of punishment was stopped. Hundreds are arriving who are mere bags of bones.

KAISER BILL LIABLE TO GET WHATS COMING

Allied action toward inflicting punishment on the Kaiser is daily becoming more probable.

The Times says: "France particularly has the most cordial sentiments toward Holland; therefore, it is sincere friendship advises the quickest possible elimination of the Kaiser as an irritating problem. A Hague jurist has rendered an opinion that the Dutch law does not permit extradition. We do not hazard a contrary opinion, but we suggest a simpler solution, namely, expulsion as an undesirable. If put aboard a ship or conducted to the Belgian frontier, the Allies will see what disposition is to be made of his case. If conducted to Germany, the Berlin government will be in a position to show the measure of its republicanism by its ardor in punishing the author of the war."

'Runaway Romany' And Special Bill

The feature at the Macdonald Theatre today is a beautiful story of romance and adventure which tells the story of a little girl, the daughter of a very rich man, kidnapped by gypsies and brought up as one of them. It was written by the youthful star herself and has been given a careful and artistic production in which beautiful exterior scenes are noticeable, in addition to a cast of such excellence as is seldom seen.

"Runaway Romany" is a clean, beautifully produced picture and an attraction which the entire family will enjoy. It is a privilege to chronicle the fact that Miss Davies makes a complete success of her motion picture debut, her beauty and talent being in great evidence and presenting every reason to expect that she will become one of the most popular screen stars if she determines to appear in more motion pictures.

The big special program also includes the last episode of the "Tons of Claws" and the first episode of "Brass Bullets," a serial having nothing to do with the war. A Pathe comedy concludes the program.

A fine bill has been secured for Monday and Tuesday with Ruth Clifford and Ethel Hall starring in the "Guilt of Silence."

Elcho Danch

Thanksgiving

The Elcho Club boys will give a big dance Thanksgiving evening at Albany at the Albany auditorium and have arranged to have Dick Henrich and his syncopated Jazz Orchestra to furnish the music. This is the first dance given since the "flu" epidemic and a great crowd is expected to be present. Because all dance lovers have learned the Elcho boys have always lived up to their slogan in giving good dances.

The Elcho's know how.

Mrs. Jenks is able to be about again after a severe "flu" attack. sugar plantations.

PYTHIANS TO GIVE TURKEYS AWAY

Turkeys for Thanksgiving given as prizes at the whist party of Contra Costa Temple No. 112, Pythian Sisters, at Pythian Castle, on Saturday evening, promises to draw many whist devotees to the affair.

The party is being arranged by a committee composed of Mrs. Marion Tubbs assisted by Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Miss Ruth Wright and Mrs. Eliza Hill.

CHINESE SENT TO CUBA

Last night 257 deported Chinese went through Richmond on a Santa Fe train bound for Key West, Florida, from which place they will be taken to Cuba for work on the sugar plantations.

"Is Your Name Written Here?"

We don't see much of Jim Long lately. Maybe he is out looking over the country to see where the turkeys roost.

Lots of rain lately. Wish there was some law compelling Fred Newcom to bring back that borrowed umbrella.

Good shows on today and tonight at both the picture theatres, with vaudeville thrown in for good measure. Some of us go to church, some to the picture shows, and some to both.

Ed Terzith has been visiting friends at Sonoma and attending the funeral of his brother, Alfred, there.

Judge Roth and this scribe had a bowl of soup together yesterday at noon while it rained. That was the nicest you can get—it was not a tidal wave, as you might have supposed.

Mrs. Browning is clerking at the Big Store. She has recovered from the "flu."

Go to church today, a chip a quarrer in the box, and say your prayers. It will do you good and the chances are you need it.

Marcus of the Big Store has a voice on him lately like a fog horn. Caught a big cold shopping around in the wetness. Rock and Rye is good—but not too much of the latter.

Mrs. Frank Herr is convalescing after a "flu" attack. She is receiving a visit from her sister, who resides in Redding.

There will be a full house at the council meeting Monday night, when the merchants and other citizens take up the police complaint with the city dads. It will doubtless be interesting.

Stiefvater has a nice display window, containing all sorts of goodies for Thanksgiving day, which comes along next Thursday. Better get your orders in early for the feast. We all sure have occasion to be mighty thankful this time, and can afford a feast.

Otto Ludewig, is still out finding out where the turkeys roost. He will show up about Monday with a carload of nice fat ones.

Read the advertisements in the News. It not only pays to advertise but it pays people to read them carefully, and so learn to trade with the live ones—they always have the bargains.

Mrs. E. M. Dearborn who has been confined to a local hospital with the "flu" has recovered so that she was able to return home.

The appendix of J. Lappan was removed at the Craven hospital yesterday.

Miss Vivi Miller was called to Fresno last Thursday to attend the funeral of a dear friend. She will return in a few days.

Ned Smith of the fire department returned to his post today. Lieutenant Clark who suffered a more serious attack will not be around for a couple of weeks, though he is much better.

RICHMOND WILL GET CO-OPERATIVE STORE

The world-wide movement of co-operative stores has reached Richmond, with Geo. M. Crandall of 434 Nevin Avenue as representative.

This movement is fostered by the Pacific Co-operative League and all ready many Richmond people have subscribed for membership. The store will probably open in a short while and help battle old high cost of living.

To form such a league, sufficient number of persons subscribe small amounts for shares, then they are organized into branch, who elect a manager to run the store. The buying is done through the co-operative Wholesale Company, while the sales are strictly cash. This eliminates all expense of carrying a big account. A balance sheet is drawn up every three months or so, and the surplus made in the business is divided among the members.

This is a big movement, which is gaining bigger headway all the time and has stores in most of the big cities of the United States and Great Britain. It is really the only solution for the elimination of the middle man and the excessive profits which he demands.

All information may be secured from Mr. Crandall, who is well known here.

IMMENSE CROWDS AT WALKER'S BIG SALE

No better proof of the drawing and selling power of advertising could be had than the big sale held by H. T. Lacelle for C. T. Walker last week. Persistent advertising was carried on in a clear, concise manner with the result that the store was flooded with eager buyers before it even opened. The crowds continued to pour in and the sale is still going on in its smashing way.

Of course the exceptionally fine stock of goods which are sold at such tremendous bargains has something to do with it, but it was the News that told the public, hence the big crowds.

We are sorry to see Mr. Walker quit for he was well liked by the public and merchant and is counted among our leading citizens.

The News wishes him luck in whatever new venture he may embark.

DICKEY COUPLE BEING SOUGHT BY SOCIETY

Information as to the whereabouts of Mr. and Mrs. Rupert L. Dickey formerly of this city, is sought by the Children's Home Society of California. According to F. E. L. Bailey, state superintendent, the Dickey's took a child from the society and disappeared. Being held responsible by the State Board for the whereabouts of the Dickey's, the society wants to know where the couple have gone.

Dickey was formerly a member of the steam fitters' union and was well-known here.
